REPORT.

HON. GEORGE WELLS,

President of the Senate.

Sir:—In obedience to an order of the Senate, of the 29th of January last, the keeper of the Records of the Court of Chancery, begs leave to report:

That in order to ascertain how many of the cases in the late Court of Chancery, “undisposed of on the 11th of March, 1854; now remain in his custody” would be a work of great labor, and he is satisfied would take him seven or eight weeks to give this information as he would have to go over the dockets for many years, and also to examine the papers in the cases.

He herewith exhibits a list of those cases which have been transmitted to the several counties and the city of Baltimore, under said law.

The amount of fees received by him under said law to this date, is $98 79; which has been paid over to the Treasurer; that there are some fees due for copies which have not yet been collected.

That he has been constantly engaged, together with two clerks since the passage of the said law, in recording and completing the proceedings of said court as required by said law; but he is clearly of the opinion that it will take at least two years to complete the same.

He would here beg leave to remark that wishing strictly to comply with the provisions of the said law, he consulted with many of the most eminent members of the bar for advice, all of whom were decidedly of the opinion that said law, did not contemplate that all of said cases should be sent away, but only such cases as might be applied for by the counsel of the parties or the parties themselves.

I have the honor to be very respectfully your ob't. servant.

LOUIS GASSAWAY.

Keeper of the Records, of Court of Chancery

February 6, 1856.
